

One Alabama
For Everyone

Doug has deep roots in Alabama. He was born and raised here. He was educated here from kindergarten through law school, and chose to stay in Alabama to raise his family and give back to the state that gave so much to him.

Doug's campaign for the Senate is built on bringing all of us together - he knows that Alabamians have more in common than what divides us.

All Alabamians want to be treated equally and given the same opportunities. Doug is working on issues that we all care about:

A safe place to live and work

A decent job with living wages and secure retirement

Markets for our farmers and businesses

Doctors and hospitals we can choose and afford

Clean air and water that we can enjoy

Quality education no matter where you live

A strong military to protect our loved ones

One Alabama, for everyone.

INDEPENDENT

Dr. Al Gross For U.S. Senate

Alaska is broken. Politicians in Juneau and Washington DC are serving themselves and the special interests, not us.

We can change Washington, and it starts by changing the people we send there. I'm not a politician. I'm a commercial fisherman, an orthopedic surgeon, and a lifelong Alaskan. I'm running as an Independent because I want the freedom in Washington to always do what's right for working families, and put Alaska first.

It's time we are represented by someone who knows our people, our land, the waters that surround us, and what makes our state so special.

It is my promise that as your Senator, I will fight tirelessly so Alaska can rebuild and deliver its promise to all Alaskans so we all can stay, and succeed.

– Dr. Al Gross

Dr. Al Gross For U.S. Senate

Al Gross is a commercial fisherman, an orthopedic surgeon, and a lifelong Alaskan. His wife, Monica, is a pediatrician, and they both had medical practices here, raised four kids, and sent them to Alaska's public schools.

Now Al Gross is running as an Independent for the U.S. Senate because there are too many politicians in Washington that put the Special Interests and their political party first.

For Al Gross, it's always about Alaska.

US SENATE
DrAlGrossAK.com
dralgrossak @dralgrossak

Thank you for joining me as I travel across our state and listen to you and learn from Alaskans. Here are six big reasons why you should fire Dan Sullivan and send me to the United States Senate to represent your interests. Unlike Dan Sullivan:

- I will always put Alaskans first and not simply follow party lines.
- As a non-partisan Independent and a doctor, I will spearhead a bipartisan solution to cut healthcare costs that will promote new business development, create new jobs in Alaska, and give relief to hard working Alaskans.
- I will keep government out of women's healthcare and reproductive rights.
- As a fisherman, I will block Pebble Mine and will be a steward for our fisheries, oceans, and lands.
- I will be a leader on climate change and arctic development.
- I will take on big pharma to combat skyrocketing drug prices and the supply side of our opioid crisis.

BACKGROUND

Born and raised in Juneau, Al is a lifelong Alaskan with deep roots in our state. Al's teenage years were shaped by a greater vision for Alaska's future. His father, Avrum Gross, was Attorney General for Governor Jay Hammond, the father of the Permanent Fund and the Dividend, and they were close friends. His mother, Shari, was the first Executive Director of the United Fishermen of Alaska and she founded the League of Women Voters Alaska. Al started commercial fishing when he was 14 and had 3 boats before his first car. He fished all across the state in 5 different fisheries and worked to put himself through college and medical school. After his medical training he returned home to Juneau as an orthopedic surgeon with his wife Monica, a pediatrician. Together they raised four great kids while balancing their careers in medicine.

Al practiced orthopedic surgery in Southeast Alaska for over 20 years before going back to school to earn a master's in public health in 2015, focusing on economics and comparing health care systems. He left a full time successful surgical practice to reform our state and national health care system. It is clear: healthcare costs are hurting Alaskans and hurting our economy. Al cares about Alaska and is working to change this. He continues to commercial fish and works as an orthopedic surgeon part time in Petersburg. He also volunteers every year teaching at a children's orthopedic surgical hospital in Cambodia. Al is an avid hunter and outdoorsman. He and Monica currently live in Anchorage. Al will always put Alaska first.

RESUME

- Orthopedic Surgeon
 - Petersburg Medical Center, 1994-present
 - Juneau, Alaska 1994-2013
 - Children's Surgical Center, Cambodia, 2015-present

Your mission in 2020:
Vote Mark Kelly for Senate

Mark Kelly is a former Navy combat pilot and astronaut who has completed four missions for NASA. He's also a father and husband who knows how hard Arizonans work to build a brighter future for our families.

As our senator, Mark will:

ADDRESS THIS CRISIS by following the science, expanding access to testing, and getting Arizona the resources we need

PROTECT ARIZONANS' HEALTH in this pandemic crisis and beyond by lowering costs with affordable care and protecting coverage for pre-existing conditions

REINVENT THE ECONOMY and raise wages for workers

PROTECT SOCIAL SECURITY and Medicare from schemes to cut them

PASS THE DREAM ACT

Mark Kelly was a Captain in the U.S. Navy and an astronaut. Use of his military rank, job titles and photographs in uniform does not imply endorsement by the Department of the Navy or Department of Defense, and reference to NASA does not imply endorsement by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

"I've taken a bit of a different path than most. I was a geologist. I opened up Colorado's first brewpub and grew a number of other small businesses.

I got into public life to solve problems and help people, and that's what I did as Mayor of Denver and as Governor of our great state.

This is a moment when there are so many problems this country could and should be solving. We should be tackling climate change, lowering health care costs, ending our gun violence epidemic, and getting special interest money out of our politics.

I'm running for Senate for everyone who has had enough of the chaos and partisanship in Washington and wants to see our problems solved and our biggest challenges met."

DEMOCRAT FOR SENATE

John believes

Climate change is the greatest threat of our time. We need to reach a 100% reduction in carbon emissions by 2050, reorient our economy around clean energy, and lead the world on this issue.

Health care is a right, not a privilege. Drug companies are ripping Americans off by hiking prices and preying on the sick. We must cut costs, get to universal coverage by bringing a public option to the health insurance marketplace, and stop Republicans from gutting protections for preexisting conditions.

We must end the stranglehold the special interests have on Washington. John is not taking a dime of corporate PAC money and will work to overturn Citizens United and shine a light on secret political spending in our elections.

The gun violence epidemic in America must end. We need to pass common-sense background checks on gun purchases, close the terrorist loophole, and keep guns out of the hands of convicted criminals, such as domestic abusers.

Paid for by Bollier for Kansas

Senator Barbara Bollier became a doctor to help people. She went into public service to fix things that were broken. And she will be a United States Senator who does both.

- Prioritizing Health Care for Kansas Families

Barbara entered public service to work for better access to health care for Kansas families, and she's worked tirelessly to expand Medicaid in our state. As our United States Senator, she'll protect and expand the gains we've made while working to lower prescription drug costs.

- A Voice of Reason in Washington

Barbara stood up against Governor Brownback when he forced his tax experiment on our state, and she's worked to pick up the pieces after the Great Recession. Barbara has proven she won't be beholden to special interests or party leaders—she'll always put Kansas families first.

Meet Dr. Barbara Bollier

Barbara has lived in Kansas for over 50 years. A proud product of public schools, she graduated from the University of Kansas School of Medicine and became an anesthesiologist. Barbara was inspired to seek public office to help more Kansans access and afford the health care they deserve. As a state representative and later a state senator, Barbara worked to expand Medicaid, support Kansas public schools, and balance the budget—all while earning a reputation for independent thinking and standing up to party leaders.

Barbara met her husband, Rene, in medical school. The couple has two children, Anne-Marie and Bobby. Barbara enjoys reading, hiking, fly fishing, and playing golf.

It's Easier Than Ever to Vote in Kentucky

This year, it's more important than ever for every voice to be heard. There are three different ways to vote in the general election: by mail, early in-person and on Election Day.

Voting by Mail

To request your mail-in ballot, visit govoteky.com and click "Absentee Ballot Request," or call your county clerk's office.

All mail-in ballots must be requested by Oct. 9, postmarked by Nov. 3, and received by the clerk's office by Nov. 6.

Drop boxes will be available to return mail-in ballots.

Early In-Person Voting

You can vote early in person Oct. 13 - Nov. 2.

There will be at least one location in each county for early in-person voting.

The voting location will be open Monday- Friday and for at least four hours every Saturday.

Election Day Voting

Polls will be open on Election Day, Nov. 3, 6 a.m.-6 p.m.

Each county will have a "voting supercenter."

County election officials will determine where additional polling locations will be and may reduce the number of sites.

REPUBLICAN

SAYS HE SUPPORTS DONALD TRUMP'S AGENDA "2000%"¹

AND THAT'S NOT GOOD FOR MICHIGAN FAMILIES

Gutting Obamacare

James called Obamacare a "monstrosity" and wants to repeal it. He supports Trump's healthcare plan, which drives up healthcare costs and guts protections for over 1.7 million Michiganders with pre-existing conditions.²

Cutting Social Security and Medicare

James supports Trump's corporate tax plan, which gives a trillion dollar tax break to drug companies and billionaires, and forces cuts to Social Security and Medicare.³

Beholden to Betsy DeVos

James is Betsy DeVos' hand-picked candidate. Her family has already spent over $1,000,000 on his campaigns. James thinks Betsy DeVos is doing a "very, very good" job, even though she proposed cutting over $100 million in funding for Michigan's public schools.⁴

JOHN JAMES

James says bipartisanship makes him "want to throw up." He's beholden to the special interests who spend big to get him elected.¹

Gary is working to expand access to affordable healthcare and lower costs. He will protect Michiganders with pre-existing conditions.

COVERING PEOPLE WITH PRE-EXISTING CONDITIONS

James supports a dangerous plan backed by insurance companies that would eliminate protections for 1.7 million Michiganders with pre-existing conditions.²

Gary will always protect Social Security and Medicare. He opposed a plan that would raise taxes on middle-class families and opposed putting your retirement benefits at risk.

PROTECTING SOCIAL SECURITY AND MEDICARE

James supports a corporate tax plan backed by Wall Street that gives a trillion-dollar tax break to drug companies, billionaires and big oil companies, and could force significant cuts to Social Security and Medicare.³

Gary expanded access to more affordable generic versions of drugs and is pushing to lower drug costs for Medicare recipients so that more Michiganders can afford their life-saving medications.

LOWERING PRESCRIPTION DRUG COSTS

James supports a plan backed by pharmaceutical companies that would boost profits for them, but increase prescription drug costs for Michiganders, including for over 200,000 seniors.⁴

Gary opposes Betsy DeVos' attempts to cut billions from our public schools. He believes our schools need more resources to keep students and teachers safe.

STANDING UP TO BETSY DEVOS

Betsy DeVos' family has already spent over $1,000,000 on James' campaigns. James thinks Betsy DeVos is doing a "very, very good" job, even though she proposed cutting over $100 million in funding for Michigan's public schools.⁵

WORKS HARD FOR PEOPLE.

TAKES ON THE POWERFUL.

GETS THE JOB DONE FOR MINNESOTA.

TINA SMITH believes working together on behalf of people is key to solving problems and creating opportunity for all. That's why she's a proven, effective Senator for Minnesota. Senator Smith works hard and across the aisle, takes on big issues and powerful special interests, and gets the job done.

"Too many politicians—in both parties—go off to Washington and wind up on the side with money and power. Minnesotans want a Senator who will be on their side. The side fighting for people. Voters can look at my record and know exactly whose side I'm on." –SENATOR TINA SMITH

IN THE SENATE, TINA IS:

Taking on Big Pharma to lower prescription drug costs with a bill to close loopholes that keep lower-cost generic drugs off the market.

Taking action to address the nation's insulin crisis. Tina wrote and passed a bipartisan law to lower the price of insulin and bring low-cost products to the market.

Expanding access to mental health services. Tina's bipartisan plan, now a law, helps bring mental health services into schools and communities.

Working to lower health care costs. She's fighting efforts to discriminate against people with preexisting conditions and charge women more.

Giving young people workforce training opportunities and expanding technical and vocational training. Tina's plan that became law brought teachers with real-world experience to Minnesota's classrooms.

Working hard for Minnesota farmers on the Senate Agriculture Committee. Tina helped craft the bipartisan Farm Bill that made it easier to expand broadband access in rural areas and help younger farmers get started.

Tackling the opioid epidemic, including trafficking. Tina helped write a major bipartisan opioids law that is bolstering prevention and treatment efforts.

Fighting climate change and protecting our environment. Tina wrote a bill to act on climate change now and reduce carbon emissions from the electric sector.

Working to lower the cost of higher education. Tina's plan would simplify financial aid and student loans, and she supports helping millions refinance their student debt.

THE ISSUES HEALTHCARE

The reason all Nebraskans don't have healthcare is due to the billion dollar profit machine of the health insurance and pharmaceutical industries and the impact they have on our hospitals, doctors and caregivers. Unfortunately, many of our current Nebraska representatives tried to take healthcare away from Nebraskans. Remember "repeal and replace"? It became repeal but no replace. We must REDEFINE healthcare. See my web site for my answer to this situation. I say...

ENOUGH VOTE THEM OUT!

TRADE

It's time to wake up Nebraska. Our current elected representatives have watched the crisis in our state pick up speed and devastate our family farmers and ranchers. A Trade war with China or anyone else who purchases our agribusiness products works directly against Nebraska. The trade attitude of the United States must change to an economically sensible strategy that allows our farmers and ranchers to make a living and not be used as a weapon with other countries. I say...

ENOUGH VOTE THEM OUT!

WAGES

So many people across our state are unemployed or underemployed. The last election promised jobs and an economy that could support living wages. It hasn't happened. Most people are NOT better off than they were 2, 4 or 6 years ago. People are working two or three jobs just to make ends meet and that's just unacceptable. Our current representatives have allowed this to happen. What can we do? See my three point plan at www.ChrisJanicekForSenate.com. In the meantime, I say...

ENOUGH VOTE THEM OUT!

Jeanne Shaheen is making a difference for New Hampshire

CONCORD MONITOR

"Trusted, respected and effective...can be counted on to be the adult in the room where others are acting like children." (2/3/19)

Jeanne is getting results for Granite Staters, no matter what it takes.

Lowering prescription drug prices by taking on big drug companies.
Protecting patients with pre-existing conditions from losing their health care coverage.
Combating climate change and creating new, clean energy jobs in New Hampshire. Defending reproductive rights and standing up for women.

Confronting the Coronavirus

When COVID-19 hit, Jeanne Shaheen worked with Republicans and Democrats to save New Hampshire small businesses. The program she helped create has kept more than 24,000 New Hampshire small businesses open and more than 206,000 Granite Staters on payroll.

As a former small business owner, she knows more help is needed. She is pushing for additional funding for testing, hospitals, schools, small businesses, and front line workers so we can get this virus under control and rebuild our economy.

Making a Difference for New Hampshire

Jeanne Shaheen worked with Republicans and Democrats so New Hampshire veterans could get health care closer to home and outside the VA system.

Jeanne Shaheen delivered a tenfold increase in opioid funding for New Hampshire's treatment and prevention services.

Jeanne Shaheen wrote the law giving survivors of sexual assault basic rights that could be enforced in federal court for the first time.

Jeanne Shaheen protected jobs at the shipyard when the Trump Administration wanted cuts. She serves on the Armed Services Committee, and is the only woman on the Foreign Relations Committee.

We need leaders who listen to science and medical experts. BUT MARK RONCHETTI IS MORE INTERESTED IN BACKING PRESIDENT TRUMP and peddling dangerous rumors about COVID-19.

- Ronchetti continues to back President Trump even though Trump denied the science, disregarded expert medical advice and still doesn't have a plan to fight the coronavirus²

Ronchetti even spread false rumors about the virus, instead of listening to medical experts³

NORTH CAROLINA FIRST

CalForNC.com @CalForNC

EXPANDING ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY FOR ALL

Cal will fight for a more equitable economy and living wage in every community by standing with workers to support efforts to promote good-paying, full-time jobs with benefits, rein in the cost of higher education and health care, defend workplace protections, and finally raise the minimum wage. And at a time when women in North Carolina and across the country still don't earn equal pay for equal work, Cal will support efforts to close the wage gap and ensure paycheck fairness for all women.

PREVENTING GUN VIOLENCE

As an Army veteran, Cal understands the responsibility that comes with carrying a weapon. He also knows, as the father of two, the fear that parents experience when they drop their kids off at school and wonder if they will come home safe. Cal will work to expand background checks, ban the sale of high-capacity magazines, pass red flag laws, and fund gun violence research on an issue that has become a public health crisis.

LOWER COST, ACCESSIBLE HEALTH CARE

North Carolinians struggle with the rising cost of premiums, co-pays and prescription drugs, every day and there are still more than 1 million people in our state without any coverage at all. Cal believes we must expand Medicaid in North Carolina. He will oppose any effort to cut Medicare and he will stand up against the politicians and special interests that want to repeal the Affordable Care Act, gut protections for people who have a pre-existing medical condition, and allow big insurance companies to impose what the AARP calls an "age tax" on older North Carolinians.

PROTECTING THE RIGHT TO VOTE

Cal supports efforts to expand access to voting and prevent voter suppression, like restoring the Voting Rights Act, extending early voting, and making it easier to register to vote by enacting reforms like automatic voter registration and making Election Day a federal holiday. He will also oppose efforts that restrict the right to vote, like unnecessarily purging voters from the rolls.

MEET CAL CUNNINGHAM

Cal Cunningham is an Army veteran of Iraq and Afghanistan, business leader, and former legislator who served as Vice Chairman of the Governor's Crime Commission.

Raised in Lexington, Cal was elected one of the state's youngest State Senators, representing Davidson, Rowan, and Iredell Counties, fighting for smaller class sizes, higher teacher pay, and investments in early childhood education as well as our university and community college system.

After the attacks on September 11, 2001, Cal volunteered to join the U.S. Army Reserve and has since served three active duty tours, including overseas in Iraq and Afghanistan. He was awarded the Bronze Star and the prestigious General Douglas MacArthur Leadership Award, in part for groundbreaking work prosecuting contractors for criminal misconduct. For the last three years, Cal has trained special forces at Fort Bragg.

Cal helps lead a nationally-recognized environmental services and waste reduction company based in Raleigh.

Cal and Elizabeth now live in Raleigh with their two high school-aged kids, Caroline and Will.

CAL CUNNINGHAM IS A MEMBER OF THE ARMY RESERVE AND IS A VETERAN OF OPERATIONS IN IRAQ AND AFGHANISTAN. USE OF HIS MILITARY RANK, JOB TITLES, AND PHOTOGRAPHS IN UNIFORM DOES NOT IMPLY ENDORSEMENT BY THE DEPARTMENT OF THE ARMY OR THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE.

Progress over politics...
...It's how I fight for our state.

"I'm working every day to put politics aside, so that here in Rhode Island we can get safely back to work and school."

Jack Reed's Top Priorities:

- Tax breaks to families, not companies that ship jobs overseas
- Ensuring women earn equal pay for equal work
- Raising the minimum wage
- Creating an economy that rewards work, not just wealth
- Preserving and Expanding the Middle Class

Retirement Security

- Preserving Social Security
- Maintaining traditional Medicare and Medicaid benefits

Building a Better Future

- Providing low-interest student loans and making it easier for the students to refinance their loans
- Up-to-date job training and help for middle-aged workers
- Preserving RI's share of federal dollars for roads, bridges and buses – and good paying jobs that come with them.

Jack Reed's Accomplishments Include:

- Got us the critical funds to improve the state's roads, bridges, RIPTA, and the state's airports.
- Secured $1.25 billion in Covid relief funding for the state
- Tens of millions to support our hospitals and healthcare workers on the frontlines
- Authored and passed the Childhood Cancer STAR Act
- Fighting to protect the Affordable Care Act

"AS A SOUTH CAROLINIAN, I'LL NEVER FORGET WHERE I COME FROM. AS YOUR SENATOR, I'LL NEVER FORGET WHOM I REPRESENT."
–Jaime Harrison

"I remember a time when senators served the people they represented. Lindsey Graham has turned his back on the people of South Carolina, focused on game-playing and his own self-interest. I want to bring the spirit of service back." –JAIME HARRISON

The son of a single teenage mom and raised by his grandparents in Orangeburg, South Carolina, Jaime overcame the challenges of grinding poverty with the help of teachers and mentors who believed in him. From a mobile home to Yale University to Georgetown Law, Jaime never forgot who he was or where he came from. Jaime knows what it's like for a family to have to choose between paying the electric bill and putting food on the table. He remembers eating cereal with water because they couldn't afford milk. But he also knows that no matter the hand you're dealt, your character and values are what define you.

AS OUR SENATOR, JAIME WILL FIGHT TO:

- Expand access to affordable healthcare
- Protect people with preexisting conditions so they aren't denied coverage
- Expand coverage, including Medicaid
- Stop the closing of rural hospitals
- Lower the cost of prescription drugs
- Make quality education affordable for everyone
- Expand opportunities for higher education, including college and technical or vocational school
- Increase resources for rural schools
- Fight to end the student loan crisis
- Increase teacher pay and opportunities
- Protect our environment
- Defend against climate change and its natural disasters
- Prepare our emergency services to handle floods, droughts, and hurricanes
- Reduce dependence on fossil fuels
- Oppose drilling of our pristine shores
- Protect our most vulnerable communities from the impact of pollution, toxic waste, and contaminated sites
- Create jobs by investing in infrastructure
- Secure funds to repair roads and bridges
- Expand broadband internet access in rural areas
- Prepare coastal infrastructure for rising sea levels and powerful storms
- Pave the dirt and gravel roads that slow economic growth in rural areas
- Root out corruption and promote good government
- End Citizens United and political gerrymandering
- Listen to the needs of the voters, not the special interests
- Stop raids on Medicare and Social Security
- Hold fellow representatives accountable

Paula Jean is a coal-miner's daughter and granddaughter fighting for...

- Economic Diversity. No one should have to leave West Virginia to find a good job; it should not be a financial sacrifice to stay.
- Anti-corruption. Our lawmakers must no longer sell themselves to lobbyists and the wealthy—they must not be more interested in keeping their jobs than doing their jobs.
- Good union jobs. We must empower working people to take a fair share of the prosperity we created in this country.
- Medicare for All. Healthcare is a human right. We must have healthcare, not a choice between pain, death, or crushing medical debt.
- Publicly-funded tuition and student debt forgiveness. We deserve a world-class education, not a system run by the wealthy at our expense.
- Unite our fight. The wealthy are waging a class war against the rest of us. We must not let them divide and conquer; let's unite our fight.

Paula Jean Swearingin is a West Virginia coal miner's daughter and grand-daughter who has been fighting to protect her community and communities like it for decades. Now she's running for U.S.Senate.

In stark contrast, her opponent Shelly Moore Capito is a member of a corrupt political dynasty—the daughter of a wealthy five-time felon who pleaded guilty to political corruption in 1990. Worse, Capito has been fighting to roll back the protections that would spare the lives of miners and mining families like Paula Jean's.

"They're not interested in protecting miners when it cuts into their profits," said Paula Jean. "It's why I've been to more funerals than weddings in my community."

While Paula Jean grew up watching her daddy, granddaddy, neighbors and friends fall prey to Black Lung, struggling even to breathe. Silver-Spoon Capito has benefitted from dirty money and backroom political connections all her life, from her attendance at Duke to her cozy relationship with Mitch McConnell, the second most hated Senator in the country. Capito now has a net worth of about $6 million dollars while the coal communities she's preyed upon continue to get hollowed out, and gas communities are being sold-out the same way.

West Virginia working families have kept the lights on in our nation for over a century, yet we continue to be plundered by politicians who sell themselves to the highest bidder, profiting from the same system that exacted such a toll on Paula Jean's family and so many others.

"No politician has a free pass to get wealthy from the blood, sweat, and tears of working people. It's time we took back what's ours," says Paula Jean.

"I'm working to protect Wyoming's future. I hope you'll join me."

Can we guarantee a future for Wyoming?

Yes, if we unite around our shared values and find solutions to our emerging problems.

- GROW AND PROTECT: Expanding the economy while preserving the environment.
- EMBRACE A TRUE EQUALITY STATE: Providing quality healthcare, ending discrimination and wage gaps.
- EDUCATE AND EMPLOY: Creating opportunities for affordable higher education and implementing guaranteed job programs.
